CORE COMPETENCIES

Founded in 2016 in Atlanta, GA, Think and Ink Grant Consulting, LLC provides customized solutions to help organizations strategize and write competitive proposals. We specialize in foundations and federal grants supporting women, children, health, and education.

Our clients include large organizations with budgets of $4 million or more, such as institutions of higher education, state and county government municipalities, and community health departments.

We provide end-to-end outsourced grant-seeking support through five core competencies:

- Consulting: We transform your organization by recommending proven grant-seeking strategies
- Grant Writing: We write competitive local, state, and federal grant proposals
- Grant Management and Administration: We execute grant management and administration support for municipalities, colleges and universities, and more.
- Funder Research: We find funders with a track record of funding similar organizations
- Evaluation: We deploy metrics and success and evaluate your program's impact
